

Our local ISP is an invaluable part of the community, and I do not want to be forced to have to accept broadband service from a large corporation. Please do not grant BellSouth's petition, which would allow it and all similar large telephone companies to force out local ISPs by refusing to allow access and/or overpricing service on its broadband networks!